6. Membership of the Company of whatever kind shall not be transferable.
7. Any termination of membership of the Company shall be without prejudice to any outstanding liability to the Company of that member.

GENERAL MEETINGS

8. The Company shall in each year hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notices calling it; and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one Annual General Meeting of the Company and that of the next. The Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall appoint.
9. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a General Meeting, and General Meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitions, as provided by Section 305 of the Act.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

10. An Annual General Meeting and a General Meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by twenty-one clear days' notice in writing at the least. All other General Meetings shall be called by fourteen clear days' notice in writing at the least. The notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting and, the general nature of that business and shall be given, in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in General

Meeting, to such persons as are, under the Articles of the Company, entitled to receive such notices from the Company:

Provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this Article be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together representing not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.

11. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

12. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, three Members present in person or five percent of the Members present in person or by proxy, whichever shall be the greater shall be a quorum. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day and at such other time and place as the Board may determine.
13. The chair of the Board shall preside as chair at every General Meeting of the Company, or if there is no such chair, or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the Trustees present shall nominate one of the Trustees present to be chair but if such appointee is unwilling or unable to act, the Members shall elect one of their number to be chair of the meeting.
14. The chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
15. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:-
 - (a) by the chair; or
 - (b) by at least two Members present in person or by proxy; or
 - (c) by any Member or Members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll be so demanded, a declaration by the chair that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chair of the meeting.

16. Except as provided in Article 20, if a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chair directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
17. A poll demanded on the election of a chair, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chair of the meeting directs provided that it shall take place within thirty days after it has been demanded, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with pending the taking of the poll.
18. No notice need be given of a poll not taken forthwith if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case, seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

19. The proceedings at any meeting or on the taking of any poll shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity in the convening thereof or otherwise or any want of qualification in any of the person present or voting thereat.
20. A resolution in writing executed by or on behalf of each Member who would have been entitled to vote upon such resolution had it been proposed at a General Meeting at which he was present shall be as effectual as if it had been passed at a General Meeting duly convened and held and may consist of several instruments in the like form each executed by or on behalf of one or more of the Members.
21. Every Member shall have one vote.
22. A Member in respect of whom an order has been made by a court having jurisdiction in matters concerning mental disorder, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his receiver, curator bonis or other person appointed by that court, and any such receiver, curator bonis or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
23. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting (or in writing pursuant to Article 21) unless all moneys presently payable by him to the Company have been paid.
 - (a) Any Member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at a General Meeting shall be entitled to appoint another person (whether a Member or not) as his proxy to attend and vote instead of him and any proxy so appointed shall have the same right as the Member to speak at the meeting.

(b) On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

25. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a Member of the Company.
26. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (including in any such case any authority under which the same has been executed or a copy of such authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Trustees) shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
27. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances admit:

This form is to be used * in favour of / against the resolution.

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy will vote as he thinks fit.

* Strike out whichever is not desired."

29. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.
30. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company at the office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

CORPORATIONS ACTING BY REPRESENTATIVES AT MEETINGS

31. Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company, and the person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which he represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD

32. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, who may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not, by the Act or by these Articles, required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act or these Articles and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid provisions, as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulation made by the Company in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

- 37. The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money, and to mortgage or charge its undertaking and property, or any part thereof, and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities, whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party subject to such consents as may be required by law.

APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES

- 38. The Board shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a Trustee, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Trustees, but so that the total number of Trustees shall not at any time exceed any maximum number fixed in accordance with these Articles. Any Trustee so appointed shall hold office only until the next following Annual General Meeting, and shall then be eligible for election, but shall not be taken into account in determining the Trustees who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.
- 39. The Company may by ordinary resolution, of which special notice has been given in accordance with Section 312 of the Act, remove any Trustee before the expiration of his period in office notwithstanding anything in these Articles or in any agreement between the Company and such Trustee.
- 40. The Company may by ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of a Trustee removed from office under the immediately preceding Article. Without prejudice to the powers of the Board under Article 38 the Company in General Meeting may appoint any person to be a Trustee either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Trustee. A person appointed under this Article 40 to fill a vacancy shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a Trustee on the day on which the Trustee in whose place he is appointed was last elected a Trustee. A person appointed under this Article 40 as an additional Trustee shall be subject to the normal retirement by rotation rules set out in Articles 44-48.

41. A Trustee may not appoint an alternate or anyone to act on his or her behalf at meetings of the Board.

45. The Trustees to retire in every year shall be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but as between persons who became Trustees on the same day those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

47. The Company at the meeting at which a Trustee retires in the manner aforesaid may fill the vacated office by electing a person thereto, and in default the retiring Trustee shall, if offering himself for re-election, (and provided he is eligible to do so) be deemed to have been re-elected, unless at such meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacated office or unless a resolution for the re-election of such Trustee shall have been put to the meeting and lost.

The Board may at any time remove a Trustee from the office of Chair upon a resolution of the Board which is carried by a simple majority. If at any meeting the Chair is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same the meeting shall be chaired by the Deputy Chair or Vice Chair or Senior Independent Trustee, where one has been appointed, and in his or her absence by any Trustee chosen by the Trustees present at the meeting.

55. A resolution in writing (which may comprise several documents containing the text of the resolution in like form) signed by all the Trustees for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held.

NUMBER OF ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

58. Unless otherwise determined by ordinary resolution the maximum number of Advisory Council members shall be twelve and the minimum shall be six.

APPOINTMENT OF ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

59. Subject to the Articles, the Board, on the recommendation of the chair of the Board having sought the advice of the chair of the Advisory Council, shall by resolution appoint (and may remove) the chair of the Advisory Council and such Advisory Council members on such terms as it shall think fit. Advisory Council members so appointed shall serve for a term of five years, renewable for such further term(s) as the Board may think fit..

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS' EXPENSES

60. Advisory Council members may be paid reasonable travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in connection with their attendance (if invited) at meetings of Trustees or committees of Trustees or the Advisory Council or General Meetings or otherwise in connection with the discharge of their duties provided that the Board shall have agreed to pay such expenses prior to their having been incurred.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE ADVISORY COUNCIL

61. Subject to any contrary provision in the Articles or in any Board resolution the Advisory Council may regulate its proceedings as its members shall think fit.
62. The Board shall elect a chair of the Advisory Council's meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office, but, if no such chair is elected, or if at any meeting the chair is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the members present may choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

INDEMNITY

- (a) To the extent permitted by the Act and without prejudice to any indemnity to which he may otherwise be entitled, every person who is or was a Trustee or other officer of the Company (other than any person (whether or not an officer of the Company) engaged by the Company as auditor) shall be and shall be kept indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all costs, charges, losses and liabilities incurred by him (whether in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust by him or otherwise) in relation to the Company or its affairs provided that such indemnity shall not apply in respect of any liability incurred by him:
- (i) to the Company or to any associated charity; or
 - (ii) to pay a fine imposed in criminal proceedings; or
 - (iii) to pay a sum payable to a regulatory authority by way of a penalty in respect of non-compliance with any requirement of a regulatory nature (howsoever arising); or
 - (iv) in defending any criminal proceedings in which he is convicted; or
 - (v) in defending any civil proceedings brought by the Company, or an associated charity, in which judgment is given against him; or
 - (vi) in connection with any application under any of the following provisions in which the court refuses to grant him relief, namely:
 - (a) (to the extent that such sections are capable of applying to the Company) Section 661(3) or (4) (acquisition of shares by innocent nominee); or
 - (b) Section 1157 (general power to grant relief in case of honest and reasonable conduct).
- (b) In Article 78(a) (iv), (v) or (vi) the reference to a conviction, judgment or refusal of relief is a reference to one that has become final. A conviction, judgment or refusal of relief becomes final:
- (i) if not appealed against, at the end of the period for bringing an appeal, or
 - (ii) if appealed against, at the time when the appeal (or any further appeal) is disposed of.
- An appeal is disposed of:
- (iii) if it is determined and the period for bringing any further appeal has ended, or

- (iv) if it is abandoned or otherwise ceases to have effect.
 - (c) In Article 78(a), "associated charity", in relation to the Company, means a charity which is a subsidiary of the Company, or a holding company of or a subsidiary of any holding company of the Company.
 - (d) Without prejudice to Article 79(a) or to any indemnity to which a Trustee may otherwise be entitled, and to the extent permitted by the Act and otherwise upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit, the Trustees shall have the power to make arrangements to provide a Trustee with funds to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him in defending any criminal or civil proceedings or in connection with an application under Section 661(3) or (4) (acquisition of shares by innocent nominee) or Section 1157 (general power to grant relief in case of honest and reasonable conduct) or to enable a Trustee to avoid incurring any such expenditure.
79. To the extent permitted by the Act, the Trustees may exercise all the powers of the Company to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of a person who is or was:
- (a) a Trustee, secretary or auditor of the Company or of a charity which is or was a subsidiary undertaking of the Company or in which the Company has or had an interest (whether direct or indirect); or
 - (b) trustee of a retirement benefits scheme or other trust in which a person referred to in the preceding paragraph is or has been interested,
- indemnifying him and keeping him indemnified against liability for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust or other liability which may lawfully be insured against by the Company.
